

The Ontologies Group at the Max Planck Institute for Informatics

Fabian Suchanek Max-Planck Institute

In this talk, I will present the newly founded research group "Ontologies" at the Max Planck Institute for Informatics. Its main areas of research are Information Extraction for Ontology construction, ontology matching, rule mining in ontologies, and provenance. I will present recent advances in these areas, and future plans.