

NAME: _____

date: _____

C.V.

I.D. No.:

Home address:

Tel. No. (office, home, cell)

E-mail:

Date and place of birth:

RESEARCH AREA: (state the general area, like Algorithms, Complexity, Logic, Bioinformatics, Graphics, Neural networks, Vision, Compilation etc.)

EDUCATION:

Years B.Sc., Subject (e.g. Computer Science, Math...), (if relevant: Summa Cum Laude etc.)
Place of Study (e.g. Tel-Aviv University)

Years M.Sc., subject, (if relevant: Summa Cum Laude etc.)
Place of study
Title of M.Sc. thesis:
Name of Supervisor:

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Dates Name of company etc., position held (e.g. programmer, team leader etc.)
There is no need to go into much detail about what you did there, anyway not more than 3 lines per entry).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

Topic of course (If you taught at another institute, name, in brackets, the inst. as well).

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS:

Date name of award

PATENTS

(If none – take off entry)

LIST OF PUBLICATIONS

List items as following (including line breaks):

Names of authors (in the order they appear on the article)

Title of article

Place of publication (full reference: name of journal/conference, vol., page numbers, year).

e.g. for Journals: Journal of Algorithm, vol. 25, 222-235 (2001).

e.g. for Conferences: Proceeding of the 24th Annual ACM Symposium on the Theory of Computing (STOC), Victoria, Canada, 222-235, 1992.

Remarks:

1. Include also accepted and submitted papers.
2. Make the list chronological in order of appearance and separate journals from conferences (list first appeared, then accepted and finally the submitted papers).
3. For the accepted and submitted papers specify “accepted” to or “submitted” to naming the journal or Conference.
e.g. Accepted (or submitted) to Journal of Algorithms
e.g. Accepted (or submitted) to ACM Symposium on the Theory of Computing 2005 (STOC’05)